Nepal Investment Seminar 2024 held to inform and attract investors in Hong Kong.

The Consulate General of Nepal for Hong Kong and Macao SARs hosted the Nepal Investment Seminar, 2024 Hong Kong on 23 March 2024 (Saturday). The program was part of the economic diplomacy and trade promotion initiative by Consulate to create awareness about investment opportunities in Nepal and engage with the local business communities.

Consul General Mr. Udaya Bahadur Ranamagar opened with a presentation on the Foreign Investment in Nepal. He expanded on the role of the Consulate General in creating awareness of Nepal and informed the audience that Nepal was open to investment and tourists post-Covid.

The keynote presentation was made by Mr. Pradyumna Prasad Upadhyaya, Joint Secretary and Spokesperson of the Investment Board of Nepal. Mr. Upadhyaya laid out the role of the Investment Board and the priority sectors for the Nepal Government for foreign investment. That was followed by the Q&A session where the presenters interacted with the audience present.

The program also featured Nepali cultural performance by a studio based in Hong Kong. Nepali traders also displayed various items from Nepal including herbal and edible products, as well as handicrafts and metalware that attracted interests from the audience.

In attendance were members of the Hong Kong and Macao business community as well as members of various business chambers and associations. The program was held in association with the Investment Board of Nepal, with the support from the Kowloon Chamber of Commerce, a body established in 1938 to coordinate local and foreign commercial sectors.
